

Proof of Residence & Proof of Identification Poll Questions

1. Acceptable proof of residence must contain the voter's current name and residential address (T)
2. Acceptable proof of residence must indicate whether a voter has resided at the address listed for at least 28 consecutive days (F)
3. Acceptable proof of residence must have an associated account number, such as a bank account number (F)
4. To be used as proof of residence, a Wisconsin driver license must be current and valid (T)
5. A Wisconsin deer hunting license is an acceptable form of proof of residence (T)
6. A business card issued by a Wisconsin company can be used as proof of residence (F)
7. A cell phone bill can be used as proof of residence (T)
8. An insurance card can be used as proof of residence (F)
9. A Wisconsin vehicle registration can be used as proof of residence (T)
10. A letter from the municipal or county clerk's office can be used as proof of residence (T)
11. For proof of identification, the voter's name must be identical to their name on the voter registration (F)
12. Indefinitely confined voters do not have to provide proof of identification if they vote absentee (T)
13. A veterans ID can be used as proof of identification (F)
14. The voter's address on the proof of identification must be current (F)
15. A student can use a Minnesota driver license as proof of identification (F)
16. Confidential voters have to provide proof of identification if they vote in-person (F)
17. A Wisconsin driver license that expired in January 2015 can't be used as proof of identification for the spring 2016 elections (F)
18. There are some documents that can be used for both proof of residence and proof of identification (T)